FOREWORD

IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void . . . And God saw that it was good.

In this manner all construction and development are dominated by the universal plan. In the beginning there is an idea and then a plan as it is with the architect when he draws up a set of blueprints. After the plans have been laid, the materials, like the brick and cement, are gathered together. The next step requires the worker to make use of the materials in order to turn out the finished product. If the idea, plan, materials, and work are good, the result must be good.

Education follows the same universal pattern. The professors and instructors lay the plans just as the architect draws the blueprint. The classes are substituted for the materials of cement and brick. The extra-curricular work of the students is then divided between athletics and organizations just as the work of the laborers is divided between the unskilled and skilled.

All the ingredients are present . . . And God saw that it was good.

Now, as seniors, we are fast approaching the completion of our four years at Susquehanna. It is with some anticipation and sense of preparedness that we face our future and realize that our lives will depend solely on ourselves and how we will approach any problems that will undoubtedly face us. Yet, we are confident. We may take our place in society and contribute freely of our abilities and talents toward any task which we may undertake.

It is not, however, without a longing look back at the memories acquired in the four years of happiness and progress attained at our Alma Mater. These memories are everlasting.

Each year the members of the class of '52 have proven themselves worthy of becoming future graduates from Susquehanna University.

During the freshman year the class of '51 was overrun in the traditional Homecoming Freshman-Sophomore Football Game. The freshmen were victorious. The Sophomore Hop with its ceiling of dancing snow flakes was the talk of the campus for weeks.

During this year the LANTHORN and the unforgettable Junior Prom with its novel ideas proved to be further milestones in our Class Activities "Record Book."

We extend best wishes to the present senior class and look forward with anticipation to next year's climax of activities for the class of '52.

We, the seniors of '53, have come to the half way mark of our college career. In the past two years at Susquehanna we have found our place in varsity and intramural sports, dramatics, and music.

Now we are looking forward to our junior and senior years and hope that we can profit by our mistakes and that our class will be one of which S. U. will be proud.

FOOTBALL

With the cry of one-up, two-up, three-up, four-up, the Crusader eleven snapped into action this year with a 27-0 victory over Lycoming College. Getting off to a slow start in the early quarters of the game, the Orange and Maroon got clicking the first time they took possession of the ball in the third quarter. Rich Young, a new face on the Crusader squad this year, but not new in the football circles, carried from Lycoming's 45 to the 33 yard line where Don Walters cracked the middle to the 28. Young then danced, twirled, shifted and squirmed through the entire Lycoming team to grab the first chunk of pay dirt for the Crusaders.

As time ran out in the third quarter, S. U. was again knocking at the Lycoming 6 after good runs by Young and Ed Menapace. On the first play of the fourth quarter Menapace slashed off tackle to make it 13-0.

Ken Lenker playing his usual outstanding game set up another T. D. with his brilliant runbacks on kicks. A Young to Lenker pass put the Crusaders deep in the enemy territory where Young and Menapace stayed on the ground to tally. The fourth score came after Gene Brouse recovered a Lycoming fumble on their 34. Young's running and a 15 yard Young to Bill Prichard pass put the ball on the one from where Sam Porter poured through to score. Torok went three for four on his placement kicks to make the total score 27-0.

The next game saw the Orange and Maroon travel to Staten Island, N. Y. to take on the Seahawks of Wagner College. With a good send-off and lots of spirit behind them the Crusaders returned victorious.

The father and son team of Staggs showed up with another fine display of the defensive art of football and were fast getting off to an unscoring season. The lone tally came in this hard fought battle in the second quarter when a Young to Menapace pass placed the ball on the Seahawks one. The next play Menapace bulled over for the only score of the game. Hindered by penalties in the second half both teams failed to impress the crowd except for the defense of the Stagg line which never allowed the Seahawks within their seventeen yard line.

Things looked good for the Crusaders, who had lost only Ed Palkovich to injuries sustained in the Lycoming game, until the following Saturday when they traveled away to Baltimore, Md., to take on a new opponent, the Blue Jays of Johns Hopkins. The tide was turned as the Staggs suffered a trouncing of 34-0. Without Coach Al Masciantonio around, the line seemed to crumble on defense and collapsed on the offense. The backfield and then the ends moved up too quickly a few times, only to see the Blue Jay backs skirt the ends and go for paydirt. The most sensational play of the game was a fourth down and five for the Blue Jays inside the Crusader 20, in the second quarter. The man pulled out around end with the ball, only to be trapped by a host of Crusaders. He promptly reversed his field and outran everybody to the goal line. S. U. made only one sustained drive which got stalled by the hard charging Blue Jay line. Buss Carr turned up the first head injury of the season in this game which proved a great disappointment to the squad who were out there to win but couldn't penetrate any deeper than the Hopkins 35.

The team worked hard all week to get ready for Juniata, arch rivals of the Orange and Maroon. Before an enthusiastic Parents' Day crowd at University Field the Crusaders didn't seem to be able to snap out of their losing streak in the first half. When the half gun went off, the new score board showed the Staggs behind 19-6. The Crusaders lone tally in the first half came in closing minutes of the period when Young passed to Lenker and sent it to Gene Fenstermacher, versatile back from Northumberland, Penna. Fenstermacher smashed through the tackle to score. The conversion by Torok went wide and the Crusaders trudged to the locker room trailing by two touchdowns.

As the gun went off to start the second half the Staggs looked as if they had caught fire again as Young returned the opening kickoff 15 yards to the Crusaders 21. With Young running and passing to Fenstermacher and Lenker, the Crusaders moved to the Indians 27. On the next play Young snapped one to Lenker in the end zone to make it 19-12. After Juniata received, the Crusader forward defensive wall stopped them cold. The Crusader drive bogged down under several penalties and the game turned into a kicking duel between Art Stanfel and the Indians. The game ended with S. U. driving deep into Juniata territory. Time ran out and the Crusaders were left with a .500 average.

After a two weeks rest, the Stagmen were ready for a highly favored C. C. N. Y. eleven. The Violets made it clear that they wanted this game but the forward defensive wall of S. U. said "NO." Ken Lenker played his usual beautiful game at safety for the Orange and Maroon, and threw his 5'7" stature high in the air over and over again to stop the C. C. N. Y. passing attack. Not only did Ken baffle the Violets defensively but offensively too, as he snapped a 45 yard chuck from Rich Young to get the first paydirt late in the second period. Steve Torok came through to score the winning point of the game on his conversion as the Crusaders left the field at the half leading 7-0.

The Crusaders defense didn't falter 'till late in the fourth period. With both teams threatening dangerously from the starting guns of the second half C. C. N. Y. finally intercepted a Young pass on the 50 yard line. Running the ball to the ten the Violet went to the air to score. After two unsuccessful attempts stopped by Mr. Lenker, finally, Maticas hit Pizzarelli in the end zone. But Lenker raced in to block the conversion and the game ended 7-6.

Having only seven games this year the Stagmen took another two weeks rest to sharpen up for Haverford. Haverford was having a good season and were picked to be such favorites that one Philadelphia paper called the Crusaders a "Soft Touch." Immediately the campus and the coaches took up the cry and plastered a big sign in varsity lockerroom reading SOFT TOUCH! Nothing was said by the team; this was Homecoming. At the rally the night before the game Captains Bob Pittello, Jess Stone, and Gardiner Marek just said, "We want to win!"

Before the game started, Coach Stagg, Jr. challenged them severally as to whether or not they had the guts to win.

The kick finally came with the red and black receiving. They drove quickly to the 5 but the Crusader line froze solid and that was the story of the game. The half ended 0-0 but Crusader spirits were high. They had already stopped Haverford three times inside the ten yard line and once on the two foot line they held for two downs.

Early in the third period Young went off tackle to culminate a 63 yard drive and S. U. was ahead 6-0. The conversion went wide but the Haverford machine was stalled again and the Crusaders took over possession of the ball. This time the Fords held and then blocked the kick to set up their T. D. A pass was good to the two then Jim Boyd cracked through to score. Briods conversion was good and Haverford led 7-6.

The Crusaders received and proceeded to roll up the yardage. A pass from Young to Don Walters who ran nicely was good for 40 yards. On the next play Young handed off to Walters who galloped to the one yard line where Young cracked over to make it 12-7. That is the way it ended but the real story was written by Al Masciantonio who was responsible for the fine condition of the team and the stellar line play in which, Jess Stone, Gene Brouse, Bob Pittello and Dick Herr were standouts as they tossed the Fords for several long losses. The Crusaders defended twice on the two foot line, once on the one foot line and many times inside the ten to beat the Lords 12-7.

The last game of the season was saved by the father and son masterminding combination. The opponents were the Ursinus Bears. The game was mostly a kicking duel but the Crusaders threatened over and over again and kept the Bears in the hole. Finally in the second quarter Ursinus was forced to kick from their own end zone. Sophomore guard Gail Moulton roared in to block the kick and end Jess Stone jumped on it for the T. D. The score remained at 6-0 till late in the fourth period when Ursinus clicked on passes to score. Ken Lenker led a host of Crusaders in to block the conversion and the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

Coach Stagg loses only three men this year and the future for next year looks very bright with a wealth of material if Uncle Sam doesn't send too many greetings.

 Second Row—Schock, Orris, Tafel, Porter, Hazlett, Fakaeh, Miller, Coach Bastress.

Baseball

Coach Bob Bastress and his Crusader nine turned in a good season this year with six wins against seven defeats for a percentage of .461 as opposed to last year's season percentage of .364. Ned Condon took the pitching laurels with his 4-3 win over Bucknell University which was without a doubt the highlight of the season. Batting and playing honors were earned by Ed Menapace, Ken Orris, and Don Wissinger. Marv Moyer made the story of the year by returning to the line-up after doctors had told him he would never play again.

Throughout the school year, the Student Christian Association attempts to give all students an opportunity for spiritual, moral, and social growth. It is the purpose of the organization to bring each student into a more nearly complete realization of the possibilities that lie in applying Christian principles to every phase of life.

Highlights in the activities of the group are college vespers, Tuesday evening commission and general meetings, Lenten meditations, and the Fasnacht and Christmas caroling parties.

The object of the organization is to foster and extend the understanding of the Latin language and culture; also, to stimulate good scholarship. Having completed one semester's work in the Latin department and having maintained a class average of "C", a student is eligible for membership. Associate members are those members of the faculty or student body who are not in the department but are interested in the work of the organization. The above mentioned students must also maintain an average of "C" for eligibility. Meetings are held once a month.

Women's Student Council

The Women's Student Council is the governing body for all women students. Activities of the Council include jurisdiction of freshman orientation and hazing, sponsorship of Parents' Day activities and week-night social dancing, decorating of the dormitories for the holiday season, and the several open houses in the dormitories. The Council also conducts the sale of stamps, cokes, candy, and other useful articles within the dormitory and supervises house meetings and fire drills.

The Women's Student Council is composed of a president and a secretary-treasurer, president of the two dormitories, the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, the social chairman, and a representative from the S. C. A., the W. A. A., the Day Students' Organization, the Panhellenic Council, and the freshman and sophomore classes.

Women's Judiciary Committee

The Judiciary Committee, a sub-committee of the Women's Student Council, serves two purposes. It has the responsibility of penalizing any one of the women student residents who has violated a Student Council regulation. Also, it acts as an advisory group reporting special problems involving the girls to the Dean of Women for the purpose of counseling and preventing rule-breaking whenever possible.

Automatic penalties are given for common offenses. Whenever extraordinary circumstances arise, the committee convenes with the violator meting just punishment according to the seriousness of the offense.

The group is made up of representatives from the various classes and members of the Women's Student Council with the Dean of Women as an ex-officio member.

Vice Presidents' Council

The Vice Presidents' Council was organized ten years ago for the purpose of maintaining quiet in the girls' dormitories during the designated study hours. The Seibert Hall House President appoints "V. P.'s" and authorizes them to enforce all quiet hour regulations. By using the "five-minute penalty" system, these girls maintain the peace and quiet of the dormitories. Upon the accumulation of twenty minutes, a girl must appear before the Women's Judiciary Committee, which decides upon a just punishment.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association, one of the larger organizations on campus, sponsors an extensive program of intramural and varsity sports for all the girls. The seasonal activities include hockey, soccer, basketball, volleyball, tennis, badminton, archery, and baseball. Points are awarded for activity in the sport and awards are given as these points accumulate.

Social activities sponsored by the W. A. A. include Play Day, informal dance, variety show, May Day Program, and the concession stand for the football and basketball games.
